The grade students are working on their exhibits for the Fair.

The Cole twins are planning to have some of their chickens on exhibit.

The boys are doing some real practicing. They intend to have a matched game Friday Sept. 30th, 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Smalley visited school yesterday. He gave us a very interesting and instructive talk.

Mr. Smalley is an old teacher and is well read and is capable in giving instructive addresses.

He was favorably impressed with our High School. We are glad to welcome all visitors.

Come, visit our school, and see what we are doing and cooperate with us.

Home Economics Club will have a stand during the Fair.

The proceeds will be given to a fund to buy more equipment.

Be sure and visit our stand and help them out in their finance.

Senior Notes.

Two of the most important Seniors have been on the sick list, Misses Pauline Craig and Ula Lee Alcorn.

The Senior Class met the other night and made ice cream and candy. They made some special candy, of Soap, salt, co. lard, sugar and water, for uninvited but expected visitors.

They surely liked it very much as they returned the third time. The uninvited guests were: L. C. B. A., H. F., F. Y., M. N., R. S., C. D., F. R., W. F.

A birthday surprise was given in honor of one of the Seniors, "Jessie Hoover". The evening was spent in playing games, and eating. The guests were: Sylvia Brazeal, Elphrea Smith, Marie Beach, Blanche Alcorn, Marie Norcross, Margarette Boughnour, Ruby Dennis, Lula Ashworth, Nola Boughnour, Everet Newton, Ned Gaines, Edgar Brazeal, and Vern Edmons.

The Senior Class is a great disappointment to the new teachers.
